Word 8.0 Form 530 Document Template

The Word 8.0 template for filling in Form 530 are electronic versions of Form 530. The template allows authors to fill in the form via a series of screens and entry fields.

Installation

NOTE: The Form 530 template can be used with Word 8.0 or higher on any of the following operating systems:

- Windows 95
- Windows 98
- Windows NT 4.0

Installing to Word 8.0

Before using Form 530 to author forms, it is important that the template to create the electronic document be installed on your local hard drive. Follow the instructions below to install the template to your system.

1. Insert the diskette into your diskette drive.
2. Open your Windows Explorer.
3. View the contents of the diskette by choosing either the A:\ or B:\ drive.
4. Copy the file, 530_v8.dot (the template), from the A:\ or B:\ drive to the TEMPLATES directory contained in your MSOFFICE directory. (On standard systems, this will be the C:\MSOFFICE\TEMPLATES directory.)

Once the template has been copied to your hard drive, you may begin to create electronic forms.

Getting Started

Starting a New Form

To author an UNCLASSIFIED Form 530, the template named Form 530 should be chosen from the File | New menu (Figure 1) in Word. Select the template name and click on OK or press ENTER to start a new document.

The Nonprint Product Documentation Page (Form 530) will appear on your screen after choosing OK from the "New" window. Next, a series of screens, or windows will appear.

Form 530 is used to catalogue information about your nonprint product. The electronic Form 530 template will provide you with a method for filling out the form automatically.

The first screen provides you with a set of instructions pertaining to filling out the form (Figure 2). Choose OK to proceed with filling out the form.

Entering Information into the Form

IMPORTANT!

If you click CANCEL in ANY of the dialogs provided for entering information into the form, you will be provided with a message asking if you are sure you want to cancel (Figure 3).

If you choose YES from this message box, the Nonprint Product Documentation Page will close WITHOUT saving information you have entered, and WITHOUT saving the document. Once you finish filling out the form, you will be able to edit information you have entered and save the form to a diskette or another drive.

BLOCK 1: Type of Product

The first block you will need to fill out will provide information about the product type (Figure 4). Depending upon which selection is chosen, the user will only view and enter information into those dialogs applicable to the specified nonprint product:

- DISKS (Floppy or CD-ROM): Blocks 1-31, 46-48
- VIDEOS: Blocks 1, 3, 11-31, 36-37, 40-41, 46-48
- MAGNETIC TAPES (Reels or Cartridges): Blocks 1-4, 11-39, 46-48
- MULTIMEDIA CD-ROMS: Blocks 1-31, 36, 42-48

This information will fill in BLOCK 1 on Form 530. Select the radio button of the type of nonprint product or enter "Other" and type the nonprint product type into the entry field. This information will fill in BLOCK 1 on the Nonprint Product Documentation Page. Choose OK to continue filling out the form.

BLOCK 1: TYPE OF PRODUCT

Block 1. Type of Product

Depending on the nonprint product selected in Block 1, only blocks applicable to that product will be displayed for completion. For example, if Magnetic Tape is selected, only blocks 1, 3, 11-39, and 46-48 display for entry.

Select the type of nonprint product, such as CD-ROM, Computer (Floppy) Disk, Magnetic Tape, Videocassette, or Other. If Other is selected, enter the nonprint product type.

BLOCK 2: Operating System/Version

The second block you may need to fill out will provide information about the operating system/version of the nonprint product, such as "MS-DOS" or "Windows" (Figure 5). This information will fill in BLOCK 2 on the Nonprint Product Documentation Page. Enter the operating system/version in the entry field.

A screenshot of a Windows-style dialog box titled "BLOCK 2: OPERATING SYSTEM/VERSION". The dialog box has a close button (X) in the top right corner. Inside the dialog, the text reads: "Block 2. Operating System/Version", "Identify the operating system software used to access the nonprint product.", and "Include version, if possible (e.g. MS-DOS, Unix, OS/2, Mac, Windows, Magnetic Tape).". Below this text is a large empty text entry field. At the bottom of the dialog are two buttons: "OK" and "Cancel".

ABSTRACT ENTRY MESSAGE

The last screen that appears in the Electronic Form 530 document is a message screen indicating that you may now enter your abstract into Form 530 (Figure 57).

Once you press OK from this screen, you may begin to enter your abstract.

The Basics of Writing the Abstract

Writing the Abstract

All abstracts must be under 200 words in length and may not include graphics, tables, art, charts, or equations. You may use the button bar and menu options to provide formatting to the abstract, such as Superscripts, Subscripts, justification, and indents.

Using the Button Bar

As you write the abstract about the nonprint product into Form 530, you may use formatting features from the menus and button bar. The button bar (Figure 58) has been customized, displaying all the buttons necessary to perform specific functions in the template.

Descriptions of each button is below.

Button	Function
	Start a new file. This will start a new file based off of the NORMAL template in Word 6.0 or 7.0.
	Open a file. This is the same action as choosing Open from the File menu.
	Save a file. This is the same action as choosing Save As from the File menu. The default for saving these files is to save them as Rich Text Format (RTF). To do this, choosing to save automatically invokes the "Save As" dialog.
	Print a file. This is the same action as choosing Print from the File menu.
	This button will activate Word's Print Preview feature, allowing you to view what will print. This is the same action as choosing Print Preview from the File menu.
	This button will run the Word spell checker. This is the same action as choosing Spelling from the Tools menu.
	Cuts selected text from the file to the clipboard. This is the same action as choosing Cut from the Edit menu.
	Copies selected text from the file to the clipboard. This is the same action as choosing Copy from the Edit menu.
	Pastes cut or copied text from the clipboard into the current document at the position of the cursor. This is the same action as choosing Paste from the Edit menu.
	Undo a previous action. This is the same action as choosing Undo from the Edit menu. ONLY use this button when entering the abstract.
	Redo a previous action. This is the same action as choosing Redo from the Edit menu. ONLY use this button when entering the abstract.

Toggles Paragraph marks on and off in the document.

Inserts a symbol into the document at the position of the cursor. This is the same action as choosing Symbol from the Insert menu. ONLY use this button when entering the abstract.

Allows you to view the document at different percentages--zoom in and out. This is the same action as choosing Zoom from the View menu.

Provides Word Help on any part of the screen you click on after clicking on this button.

Allows you to see the Form 530 style that is active on the text where your cursor is located.

Selecting text, then clicking on this button will make the selected text subscripted. ONLY use this button when entering the abstract.

Selecting text, then clicking on this button will make the selected text superscripted. ONLY use this button when entering the abstract.

These buttons indicate the justification of the text in a cell.

Using these buttons will allow you to indent text. ONLY use these buttons when entering the abstract.

Editing and Saving Form 530

Editing Form 530

Once you have completed filling out the form with the prompt screens, you will be able to edit the form as a normal Word 6.0 or 7.0 document. You can select text, copy text, and type over text, fixing any error entries when you filled in the information in the prompt screens.

Saving Form 530

After filling out Form 530, you will want to save the form document for submittal to the Defense Technical Information Center (DTIC) along with your nonprint product. To save the document, click on the SAVE AS button on the button bar () or choose Save As from the File menu. A window similar to that below (Figure 59) will appear.

You will notice that the document is being saved as "Rich Text Format" by default. DTIC requires all electronic forms and documents in this format when saving. Type in the name you want to call the completed Form 530 and choose the directory and/or drive in which to save. Click on OK to save the document.

After saving the electronic Form 530, send the electronic copies to DTIC for processing and cataloguing.
